

I am totally, 100 % against more media consolidation. On June 2, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules, serving the public rather than private interest. You are receiving all of this input because so many care about this is!!!